

Please dismiss the Consumer Bankers Association's petition to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers. Our Attorney General has worked hard to ensure telemarketers do not interrupt our personal time. Please do not undermine that effort. Listen to the people of our state and not the banks' lobby.